

CS412 Coursework Assignment 1

Team Declaration

We certify that the work attached to this declaration is our own with no assistance from any person outside this team, and that no part of it has been taken from any other source.

The work should ideally be carried out as a pair. However, there may be an odd group of 3! Each member should add their details below.

It is expected that each member will contribute equally. However, if this is not possible please contact the module organiser to discuss.
